Support the AAE Foundation

The Association of American Educators Foundation is a non-profit, charitable organization that provides teachers and leaders with opportunities, information, and funds to help reform and improve the education of America’s youth.

- AAEF provides scholarships and grants to classroom teachers designed to advance student learning and fund innovative classroom projects.
- AAEF promotes professionalism and engages educators through reform, curriculum, and leadership workshops and publications.
- AAEF serves as a resource to school boards and school districts on issues pertaining to individual workplace rights and alternative forms of teacher representation.
